

The Sunday Herald

AND Weekly National Intelligencer.

Entered at the Post Office at Washington, D. C., as Second-class Matter.

Editorial and Publication Offices, No. 935 D Street Northwest.

T. N. BURRITT, Editor and Proprietor.
T. B. CALIFUS, Publisher.

Two editions published every Sunday morning in time to reach the early mails.

The Army and Navy edition contains a complete gazette of all news and orders relating to the Service.

Orders should in all cases be sent direct to this office, as we have no agents' commissions. Subscriptions in all cases by post office money order, registered letters, or check on New York or this city.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Rejected communications cannot be returned. As an evidence of good faith, all communications, no matter how trivial, will be referred to the Editor of this newspaper. Letters must be accompanied by the writer's name and address.

WASHINGTON, SEPTEMBER 12, 1860.

FOR PRESIDENT,

WINFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

WILLIAM H. ENGLISH.

VERMONT Republicans had what Mr. Blaine called a dress parade in the State campaign, and yet we do not see that the result of the election was nothing for the Republicans to boast of. If a strict Republican State like Vermont cannot increase its majority in an exciting Presidential year we fail to see wherein her victory.

GOVERNOR CORNELL of New York, expresses the opinion that the Empire State will be for Garfield. There was a time when even the New York Advertiser, which now publishes Mr. Cornell's opinions, approvingly had little faith in him. But days have changed. The New York machine has been adjusted to the Garfield movement, and even the powerful Advertiser lends its lubricating oil to make the machine work.

ENGLAND capital to the amount of $1,000,000 now lies idle and waiting for an opportunity for safe investment. American capital in the same condition awaits it, unimpeded, to $2,000,000. English capital came first at home, and for per cent. investment, and will therefore naturally seek a place in the United States. But an capitalist is always nervous and timid; will not naturally hesitate if the sectional feeling is kept up? Else General Hancock and we may have still that British capital to work upon, because his election will be an earnest of a thoroughly re-united country. On the other hand General Garfield's election will mean a continuation of sectional bitterness, and with hate kept up there will not be the same incentive for capital to seek an investment here.

Besides another issue of THE HERALD Main will have held her State and Congressional election. Very few Democrats have any hope of carrying the State for Governor. But we have confidence in General Butler's idea that the contest will be close, and believe that whichever party wins will not have a large majority on the State ticket. It this shall be the result it will be glory enough, but we have great faith in the ability to accomplish much in the Congressional districts. Two years ago the Democrats and Greenbackers can separate tickets in nearly all the districts, and in every instance the Republicans elected were in a minority. In the First District Mr. Reed, the Republican candidate, had 13,483 votes, against 9,333 for the Democratic candidate, and 6,348 for the Greenback candidate. He was in a vicinity of over 2,000 votes. In the Second District Mr. Foy had 11,434. The combined opposition was 11,804 votes, leaving Foy in a minority of nearly 400. In the Third District Mr. Lindsey had 11,375 votes. The opposition combined polled 14,126 votes, a majority of nearly 3,000 against the Rep candidate. Mr. Ladd in the Fourth District was supported by both the Democrats and Greenbackers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor. In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue. This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates. While there will be no fusion on the Presidential electoral ticket, it is complete so far as Congressmen are concerned, and there is therefore a reasonable prospect that gains will be made on Congressmen. The fusion candidates, if elected, will act with the Democracy.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate. As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue. This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

While there will be no fusion on the Presidential electoral ticket, it is complete so far as Congressmen are concerned, and there is therefore a reasonable prospect that gains will be made on Congressmen. The fusion candidates, if elected, will act with the Democracy.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

While there will be no fusion on the Presidential electoral ticket, it is complete so far as Congressmen are concerned, and there is therefore a reasonable prospect that gains will be made on Congressmen. The fusion candidates, if elected, will act with the Democracy.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

While there will be no fusion on the Presidential electoral ticket, it is complete so far as Congressmen are concerned, and there is therefore a reasonable prospect that gains will be made on Congressmen. The fusion candidates, if elected, will act with the Democracy.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

While there will be no fusion on the Presidential electoral ticket, it is complete so far as Congressmen are concerned, and there is therefore a reasonable prospect that gains will be made on Congressmen. The fusion candidates, if elected, will act with the Democracy.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

While there will be no fusion on the Presidential electoral ticket, it is complete so far as Congressmen are concerned, and there is therefore a reasonable prospect that gains will be made on Congressmen. The fusion candidates, if elected, will act with the Democracy.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H. Howgate.

As is well known, THE HERALD Main is opposed to capture of signal officers, and he had a majority of 2,829 over his Republican competitor.

In the Fifth District Mr. March was elected by a plurality on the square Greenback issue.

This is the last of a series of all the elements against the Republican candidates.

THE SIGNAL OFFICE.

There seems to be a considerable contest over the vacant position of Chief Signal Officer. It is evident that the case ought to be governed by one of two considerations.

Either the promotion ought to be made from among the colonels of the Army or it ought to be given to the ranking officer on duty in the Signal Corps and familiar with the duties. Captain W. H